

Suggested wording for a Letter of Wishes.

To: The Trustees of the Forbes Charitable Foundation

Registered Charity No 326476

The Trustees should be aware that I, [insert your name] have left a sum of money to the Foundation in my will.

It is my wish that the future needs of my son/daughter, [insert your relative's name] currently being supported by [insert care provider's name], should be met in all respects, particularly with regard to his/her general welfare, education, health and nursing should that be required.

These wishes are expressed in the full knowledge that they have no legal binding on the activities of the Trustees whatsoever.
